17. Big shot is a famous MNC company that sells mobile accessories to customers. It has more than 1000 salesmen travelling around the world to capture business. The manager of the sales department in London instructed one of the employees Jones to book 3 rooms in a five star hotel during their visit to India. Jones booked 5 rooms in a five star hotel in a hurry without noticing the terms and conditions of the contract in detail. Later, Jones realized the mistake and intended to cancel the two extra rooms and claimed for total reimbursement of money for the two rooms that was booked by mistake. The five star hotel refused to grant full reimbursement of money as it had stated the terms and conditions of contracts through online.

(a) Is Bigshot eligible for full reimbursement of money?

(b) What procedure should have Jones followed while carrying out his contract?

(c) What are the essential elements of an e-com contract?
