About us

Community College of Pondicherry University was established in 16th October 1995, the day of Decennial Celebration of Pondicherry University, formally inaugurated by Dr.(Miss.) A.S.Desai, the then Chairperson of the University Grants Commission. The Pondicherry University Community College, the first of its kind in the University system of higher education in India, to cater to employment oriented education to the Community, is an experimental model of American and Canadian Community Colleges. The motto of Pondicherry University Community College is “Education for Employment through Skill Formation”. The educational activities are designed in line with the needs and demands of the local community. More specifically, the main objective of this College is “to offer job-oriented courses based on the perceived community demands for specific manpower”. In short, Community College is “for” the Community and “of” the Community.

It attempts to create a model of employment oriented education with adequate mutual collaboration and co-operation of members from various commercial, agricultural, government and academic institutions and organizations.

The Pondicherry University Community College acts under the general, academic and administrative supervision of Pondicherry University. Pondicherry University Community College has been recognized by the UGC as a Constituent College of Pondicherry University.
