ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CHANGE

Human Resource Management

Fourth Semester

M.B.A. DEGREE EXAMINATION, JUNE 2014

MBHR 4001

Do you think the managers had accurate view of team building concept and role of external consultants?

(a) Why did middle managers show resistance to organizational approach of organization development?

(b) Why did everyone say that he needs a good feel for human nature? The corporate personnel director followed down their high paid consultants to do team building studies. However, the other managers generally agreed. However, the middle managers do not need a good feel for human nature, all you really do not need to do is to choose a manager who is liked by everyone and put him in the role of change agents. After all, you really do not need change agents. The problem is, we have to do is to choose a manager who is liked by everyone and conduct session ourselves. All can be achieved and conducted session ourselves. All consultants were not needed for team building.

17. The personnel office of Prasant Chemicals limited informed the middle managers through a circular that a group of consultants would be calling on them later in the week to provide training on team building. The consultants would be emphasizing on how to develop team work and to build inter group relationships throughout the Company. The informational contained the approach to be adopted by the consultants and explained the five-step process of team building: problem sensing, examining differences, giving and receiving feedback, developing interactive skills, and follow up actions. The circular also included a note on the utility of team building in organisational effectiveness.

   On receiving the circular, middle managers, felt tensed as they thought team building as an exercise involving a lot of hocus-pocus as they experienced in sensitivity training exercises in which participants used to attack each other and let out their aggression by heaping abuse on those disliked. Therefore, the managers felt that the
