Mahishasur Marddini

A night to remember

2022 • 115 mins

Director: Ranjan Ghosh

Language: Bengali with English Subtitles

6th February 2023

6:00 pm

Venue: The Department of Electronic Media and Mass Communication Auditorium, Silver Jubilee Campus

A young deaf-mute girl is gangraped and murdered in Kolkata, a night before Durga Puja. Nearby, a landlady and her four college-going tenants receive a few guests, some expected, some unexpected. The fatalistic and menacing incidents that unfold thereafter reveal that a girl child or a woman in distress is a metaphor for humanity in peril. The expressionistic film-noir, combining the forms of cinema and theatre, is about guilt-ridden memories, fake appearances of nobility that we all put on, and how these appearances eventually crumble.

Mahishasur Marddini experiments with its form, trying to marry the elements of theatre with film. In a nod of approval validating this experimentation, India Habitat Centre, Habitat World, New Delhi, screened the film at the 21st edition of their prestigious theatre festival, the Habitat Theatre Festival, 2022. With that, Mahishasur Marddini became the first feature film to be screened at any theatre festival anywhere in India. The film was also screened at the School of Arts and Aesthetics, JNU, and at the AJK MCRC, Jamia Millia Islamia, where both the film and its screenplay were archived. The apex body of the Film Society Movement in India, The Federation of Film Societies of India (FFSI), held a special screening of the film to mark its 50 days' run at the theatres.
