Respected sir,
Good Afternoon,

With regard to my previous mail to you about the Re-Evaluation of my Neuropsychology paper of semester (III), I have received clarification of where would I lost marks, (Question - Wise) by the respected lecturer, but as I am still not satisfied, I would like to proceed with the re-evaluation process.

I kindly request you to do the needful.

Yours Sincerely
Anu Tressa

Dear sir,

I hope this email finds you in your best health. I have once mailed you regarding the re-evaluation of the neuropsychology paper in which I have failed. And I was asked to contact the concerned teacher to see the evaluated paper. Though I couldn't see the paper, the teacher told me via a phone call how the paper was evaluated. I was also told that no answers were missed to give marks. But as I still am dissatisfied with the marks given, I would like to go for re-evaluation. I kindly request you, with hope, to do the needful for the re-evaluation of the paper. Thanking you in advance.

Yours sincerely,
Stelvy Peter

Sub: CBCS Regulations – Revaluation under CBCS system for University Department Exams – Reg.

Ref: Circular No. PU/AS/TA/CBCS/2018/79, dated 02.11.2018.

As per circular cited above, the decision to have single internal evaluation for University Department Exams under CBCS system and conduct of revaluation has been communicated and implemented from November, 2018 session onwards.

In this regard, the following procedure/guidelines is hereby communicated for adoption with regard to conduct of revaluation:

1. The students in the first instance are to be shown the evaluated paper by the concerned Course Teacher / HOD, as per CBCS guidelines.
2. If there is mistake in totaling of marks or if any answer has not been valued, the course teacher can rectify and report the same to the HOD.
3. If the student is not satisfied with the evaluation, a written complaint is to be made by the student to the HOD. This may be considered by the Programme Committee / Exam Committee of the department and 'recommend' or 'not recommend' revaluation to the Dean.
4. If it is recommended for revaluation, the candidate may be directed to pay Rs.1000/- (Rupees One thousand only) per script as revaluation fees.
5. The HOD / Department may send photo copy of the script(s) to the Dean for revaluation.
6. The Dean may appoint an External Examiner and send the photo copy of the script(s) by speed post / email and get it re-evaluated within a week.
7. The mark awarded by the External Examiner after revaluation will be final and binding.
8. The expenses towards revaluation will be paid / reimbursed / settled by the Exam Wing.
