Pondicherry University to accept CUET scores

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
PUDUCHERRY

The Pondicherry University will be accepting the Common University Entrance Test (CUET) scores for admission into the five-year integrated programmes from the current academic year. According to a release, the admission will be based on CUET (Undergraduate)-2022 to be conducted by the National Testing Agency.

Aspirants who desire to take admissions into the Integrated programmes can apply for CUET UG-2022 online at <https://cuet.samarth.ac.in/>

They may also refer to the information brochure available on the university website at www.pondiuni.edu.in/admissions - 2022-23 for the eligibility criteria.

The last date to submit the online application form for the various integrated programmes is May 6, 2022.
