

Anthropology professor of Pondicherry varsity honoured

The Hindu Bureau
PUDUCHERRY

Ajeet Jaiswal, Head, Department of Anthropology, Pondicherry University, was recently honoured during the World Anthropology Congress (WAC) 2023, held in Bhubaneswar, in recognition of his contributions to the field of anthropology.

A press release issued by the Pondicherry University said that Mr. Jaiswal was presented with a certificate of recognition and appreciation, under the auspices of the United India Anthropology Forum and the Kalinga Institute of Social Science, for his "dedication, commitment, and profound impact on the realm of anthropology that have set him apart as a trailblazer in the field".

On receiving the prestigious honour, Mr. Jaiswal reaffirmed his commitment to furthering the field of anthropology and the pursuit of knowledge, fostering interdisciplinary collaborations, and addressing critical societal issues through research.