SRI Aurobindo Society (SAS) and Pondicherry University propose to formalise a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) for collaboration through internships, workshops, seminars, and more.

The announcement was made at a seminar on 'Indian-ness in 21st Century', organised by the chair of Sri Aurobindo of Pondicherry University and SAS. The recent event was aimed to delve into the evolving concept of Indian identity in the modern era.

Richa Tiwari, chair of Sri Aurobindo at Pondicherry University, announced the upcoming MoU between the institution and SAS.

Pradeep Narang, chairman of SAS; Matriprasad of Sri Aurobindo Ashram; Beloo Mehra, senior academic mentor at SAS; and Gayatri Majumdar of SAS attended the event.

The discussion featuring Deepti Tewari and Jean Yves Lung from Auroville was moderated by Nanda Kishore.
